

Malcolm Certain

Providence, RI • malcolm@thecertains.com • (206)-276-9220

Education

Brown University

Sc.B., Applied Math-Economics (honors) and Urban Studies. 4.0 GPA.

Thesis: The Effect of School Shootings on Student Performance

Providence, RI

Spring 2026

Research

Cornerstone Research

Analyst

Boston, MA

Summer 2026 – Present

Annenberg Institute at Brown University

Undergraduate Research Assistant (Matthew A. Kraft)

Providence, RI

Fall 2024 – Spring 2026

- Significantly improved runtime, memory usage, and readability of R, Python code processing large data sets.
- Ran event studies on effects of natural disasters on student outcomes in Stata.

Rhode Island Public Expenditure Council

Intern

Providence, RI

Fall 2024 – Spring 2026

- Cleaned and analyzed large data sets on government revenues and expenditures in Excel.
- Conducted literature review and regression analysis on chronic absenteeism in Rhode Island.

Brown University Department of Economics

Undergraduate Research Assistant (Anna Aizer)

Providence, RI

Summer 2025

- Created complete data analysis pipeline from raw data to results in Stata.
- Managed team of Undergraduate Research Fellows, taught research and Stata skills.

Annenberg Institute at Brown University

Undergraduate Research Assistant (Jesse Bruhn)

Providence, RI

Spring 2025

- Devised main identification strategy for research project on how political climate affects city council meetings.
- Created effective data visualizations for internal use in R.
- Wrapped R code in functions to flexibly apply empirical strategy to different events.

Brown University Department of Economics

Undergraduate Research Fellow for Social Science and Public Policy

Providence, RI

Summer 2024

- Cleaned and analyzed large amounts of Census data in Stata.

Teaching and Mentorship

Brown University Department of Economics

Economics Peer Advisor

Providence, RI

Fall 2025 – Spring 2026

- Provided academic and professional advice to economics students at Brown.

Brown University

Meiklejohn Peer Advisor

Providence, RI

Fall 2025 – Spring 2026

- Advised group of first-years on academics and extracurriculars.

- Taught undergraduates skills in microeconomics, econometrics, and calculus.
- Organized supplementary skills-building workshops for students.

Conferences and Presentations

Stata collect workshop for Undergraduate Research Fellows	Summer 2025, Summer 2026
Stata frame workshop for Undergraduate Research Fellows	Summer 2026
Git workshop for Undergraduate Research Fellows	Summer 2026
Nebraska Labor Summit Undergraduate Workshop	Spring 2026

Awards and Honors

Magna cum laude (highest university honors)	Spring 2026
Outstanding Undergraduate Teaching Assistant, Department of Economics	Spring 2026
Phi Beta Kappa	Spring 2025
Omicron Delta Epsilon	Spring 2025

Skills and Interests

Programming Languages: R, Python
Software: Stata, Excel, Git, $\text{\LaTeX}$, ArcGIS, QGIS
Research Interests: Public finance, local political economy, economics of education